

STATE	COUNTY	TOWN OR VICINITY	3s 5p 4d
Illinois	Pike	Pittsfield
INDEX NUMBER	MONUMENT	FRANKLIN & W. WASHINGTON STS.
ILL 75-PITFI, 1-	Worthington House
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.	History: Built 1838 for acad-
	ILL-264 ✓	my, but, on account of finan-
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS		cial conditions, the school was never opened, and was sold at auction to Dr.
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS		Thos. Worthington For $500, who used it as residence. Dr. W. was a pioneer in fields of medicine and geology, and famous in politics. A. Lincoln, Sen.
		O.H. Browning, John Nicolay, Helen Nicolay, John Hay, entertained here. Now property of the heirs at law of Dr.
		Worthington.
		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY (over)

FN-104

GR REVIVAL

Description: One story; painted brick with stone foundations; frame addition on rear. Oak frame for interior walls, floor, roof; hewn oak trusses for roof. Exterior woodwork and interior finish of white pine; window and door sills of oak. Black walnut stairs. Wood shingle, pitched, roof.

Reference: Pike Co. Republican, Aug. 26, 1936.

"Portrait Biographical Album of Pike & Calhoun Counties, Illinois." pp. 806-808.

"History of Pike Co., Illinois" pp. 710-711.

Minna Worthington Adams, Jacksonville, Ill., a granddaughter of Dr. Thos. Worthington.

{ Edgar E. Lundeen 5/20/37.
{ Bloomington, Ill.